Goals

Confident speaking skill, including not-perfect knowledge of grammar, but primarily:

- Thorough knowledge of vocabulary.
- Ability to speak fluently with this vocabulary, using sentence patterns taught, and putting a number of sentences together.

The goal of this course is to impart skills, which is a significant challenge in itself. The challenge of acquiring a skill is quite enough, so if you ever find yourself lost or intimidated, raise your hand or make an appointment to see me.

Requirements

- Speaking abilities as observed daily and final examinations: 20%
- Quizzes : 20%
- Attendance, homework, journals, and other aspects of participation:20%
- Written midterm and final examinations: 30%
- Audio visual work 10%

Primary Criteria for Class Participation, Oral Exams, Written Stories, and Audio-visual Material

- Confidence and "fluency"
- Length
- Imagination and creativity
- Comprehensibility
